

Interior Design Show West

SEPTEMBER 19-22

Great city, great design. Hundreds of industry professionals are gathering in Vancouver, B.C., to celebrate all things building and design during IDSwest. From a showcase of the newest and brightest designs to trend-inspired pieces to a handmade-goods marketplace, this event is a mecca for design lovers. The event is sponsored in part by GRAY, so stop by and meet a few members of our team during the show!

CHRISTOPHE STRUBE

Annual Sidewalk Sale

SEPT. 7, 9 A.M.-3 P.M.

A sale with double the love. Design aficionados will love the diverse bunch of retailers showing off their stuff during this once-a-year event produced by the Seattle Design District Association. Spilling out across two large parking lots anchored at the corner of Sixth Ave. S. and Orcas St. in Georgetown, the sale offers savvy shoppers great deals on designer furniture, fabrics, collectibles, antiques, and more. As if that's not enough, it's also for a good cause—raffles throughout the event support Seattle's Children's Play Garden. Love, love.

The Seattle Design Festival

SEPT 13-22

Growing stronger every year, the design festival is the largest interdisciplinary design event in the Puget Sound region. This year, Design in Public and AIA Seattle collaborate with more than a dozen nonprofit partners to present a week-long-plus festival filled with tours, films, speakers, exhibits, installations, and family programs addressing the theme of design in health.

SEPTEMBER HOME TOURS

TOM CLEMENTS, COURTESY COATES DESIGN

Seattle Modern Home Tour, Coates Design Architects.

September is all about home tours. To kick off the month, Modern Home Tours has chosen a group of architects and builders to open the doors to some of their most spectacular residential projects in Seattle (July 7th) and Vancouver (July 14th). Sponsored by GRAY, so see you there! Back to Seattle on the 14th, AIA Seattle presents its first-ever home tour, Explore Design. Held during the Seattle Design Festival, the tour displays homes that have been carefully selected for their outstanding architectural response to site, scale, and inhabitants.
